DETAILED ACTION

Notice to Applicant

1. This communication is in response to Remarks filed 08 May 2008. No claims have been amended. Claims 1-15 remain pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-3, 5-10, 12-14 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being obvious by Sloane (5,911,132) in view of Fogel (6,542,905) for substantially the same reasons as stated in the 1/11/08 Office Action.

4. Claims 4, 11, 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being obvious by Sloane (5,911,132) in view Fogel (6,542,905) in further view of Kessler (2001/0034618) for substantially the same reasons as stated in the 1/11/08 Office Action.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

(A) In essence, Applicant argues on pg. 6 of the 5/8/08 Remarks that Sloane in view of Fogel does not teach the features of a demographic audit module determining whether sufficient patient demographic exists in the medical emergency database and searching other databases in an attempt to obtain missing demographic information. Examiner disagrees. According to MPEP § 2106, USPTO personnel are to give claims their broadest reasonable interpretation in light of the supporting disclosure. In re Morris, 127 F.3d 1048, 1054-55, 44 USPQ2d 1023, 1027-28 (Fed. Cir. 1997). The Automated Data integrity Audit System ("DIA") of Fogel teaches obvious tests which check the data for completeness (Col. 9; lines 60-64). This clearly reads upon determining whether sufficient patient demographic data exists. Furthermore the DIA system of Fogel teaches that the provider gathers information about payers' and regulators' audit criteria, and individual facilities' and chains' audit histories. Thus, the DIA service provides a facility data integrity tests and documentation prompts addressing circumstances that have prompted audits in the past (Col. 13, lines 8-25). Examiner submits that this process in Fogel is a broad and reasonable interpretation of the limitation of "searching other databases in an attempt to obtain missing demographic information." The system in Fogel is an automated computer process, thus one of ordinary skill in the art would understand that a search for information would include searching in databases, a means for storage of electronic data. Furthermore the claim only requires that the search of other databases in an attempt obtain missing information. The claim language does not require that missing information be found only that a search is done in an attempt to get the information. Examiner submits that a search of an audit history of a facility could qualify as an attempt to obtain missing information as the current audit may be missing information contained in past records.

Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

7. A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
